SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On June 25, 2013, the President signed Executive Order 13646, creating the Council to help build the financial capability of young people from an early age, in schools, communities, and the workplace. Understanding financial matters and making informed financial decisions help contribute to financial stability. The Council is composed of two ex officio Federal officials and 22 non-governmental members appointed by the President with relevant backgrounds, such as financial services, and education. The Director of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau has also been invited to participate as a member of the Council. The role of the Council is to advise the President and the Secretary of the Treasury on means to promote and enhance the financial capability of young Americans. In accordance with section 10(a) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, 5 U.S.C. App. 2 and the regulations thereunder, Louisa Quittman, Designated Federal Officer of the Council, has ordered publication of this notice that the Council will convene its second meeting on October 2, 2014, at the Department of Treasury, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington D.C., beginning at 9:00 a.m. Eastern Time. The meeting will be open to the public. Members of the public who plan to attend the meeting must register in advance. To register, please go to www.treasury.gov, click on Resource Center, then Office of Consumer Policy, and then on the President's Advisory Council on Financial Capability for Young Americans by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on September 23, 2014. To register, attendees will need to provide a full name, date of birth, and Social Security Number. For entry into the building on the date of the meeting, attendees must present a government-issued ID, such as a driver's license or passport, which includes a photo. The Council will: (1) identify ways to build the financial knowledge, skills and opportunities for young people, (2) discuss reports from each of the Council's four subcommittees and (3) discuss future ideas for the Council.

Dated: August 26, 2014.

David G. Clunie,
Executive Secretary,
Department of the Treasury.
